

Having experienced the debacle of corporate radio, how can officials for the people of the United States of America even consider handing over our public television rights along with the "free" press over to greedy corporations? Big business already owns congress, why should a few all-powerful corporations now own our media sources? Please, consider the American people that you are supposed to represent instead of that big stack of money held out by big business, and allow some public input on this decision.